Hello Readers,

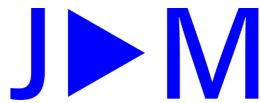

We are thrilled to announce that we are working closely with JAM (Junction Arts & Media) and Briggs Opera House to bring Keeping It Inn to a wider audience in the Upper Valley. In this show, I play my mother, Nancy Pierce in the last six decades of her life. Nancy reflects on the life and love she shared with Reg and their adventures raising seven children. She explores their bold decision to leave Greenwich, CT to become innkeepers in NH. In Nancy's later years, her short-term memory fades, but the pain of loss lingers in her heart.

After a sold-out run at Pierce's Inn in October, many have expressed interest in having a chance to see Keeping It Inn. You can buy tickets for the

A story that captures some of the challenges and adventures Nancy and Reg experienced as the innkeepers of Pierce's Inn

My parents, Reg and Nancy Pierce were in their mid-forties when they became innkeepers. From 1971 until 2002, Reg and Nance hosted a wide variety of events at Pierce's Inn, sometimes taking on challenging events just to keep the Place afloat. Witnessing their negotiations, teamwork, disagreements and ability to find humor all along the way was inspiring. Adaptation on all fronts was
