Hello Readers,

BARBIE lives up to the hype! When a rural NH movie theater had sold out for the 7 PM show on a Monday night, I realized we may be in for more than entertainment. Fortunately, we found tickets at another theater and were happy to make a longer drive to get there.

I had yet to read anything about the movie, but the trailers prepared me for a nostalgic, clever take on the history of Barbie and Ken. My high expectations were blown away. The thought-provoking plot took us on a humorous and riveting tour with familiar childhood toys as our guides, who then introduced an unexpected but greatly necessary conversation. Read full blog HERE

Cindy Pierce: Being a Strong Leader for our Youth

Interview with KIP HOLLISTER of
THE HOLLISTER GROUP

In this week's episode of *Well Being Walks*, Kip is joined by Cindy Pierce, Author, Performer, Speaker, Sexuality Educator, Comic Storyteller, Innkeeper and Mom of three young adults. Cindy and Kip walk through Hale Reservation in Dover, MA, and grow from acquaintances to friends as they delve into Cindy's leadership journey.

Cindy takes us through her childhood as the youngest of seven, and how her unique path has shaped her into who she is today – a woman unafraid of failure and excited by new challenges. Her passion for educating our youth is exciting and inspiring.

I invite you to listen and learn from all her wonderful advice.
