November 2021 Newsletter

Hey There!

This newsletter is a place for me to share my work, including presentations for high school and college students; young adults navigating life after college; educators; parents and community organizations. I will also include information about my new projects and storytelling events. Occasionally, I will share an inspiring message from one of my mentors.

Thanks for reading along.

My presentations for groups of college students have become increasingly popular. Students find these conversations engaging and informative, and they appreciate my fearless approach to answering their questions about healthy sexual relationships. These presentations can be tailored to meet the specific interests of each group. You can find more information about the content of my presentations for college students here.

I would be delighted to come speak on your campus or meet on Zoom. If you are interested, please email my speaking agent, Sarah by clicking the contact button below. I'd love to work with you!

Cindy's recent presentations include:

Parent, educator and community groups

Braintree, MA, Telluride, CO (Tri-County Health Network) and Plymouth, NH (CADY: Communities for Alcohol and Drug-Free Youth)

College students

Dartmouth, Syracuse and Northeastern

High School students

Tabor Academy, Tilton School and Worcester Academy

Testimonial:

Thank you for such an amazing and enlightening experience. Not only did you have everyone laughing the entire time, you addressed some extremely important

My Latest Project

I am very excited to announce that I will perform my new solo show, KEEPING IT INN on January 23rd at the Whitefire Theater in Sherman Oaks, CA. There will be additional opportunities to see the show online or in the Upper Valley in 2022.

Keeping It Inn

Nancy attempted to tamp down her deepest sorrow, yet it proved to remain sharp even in the depths of dementia. Her busy, interesting and hilarious life was not enough to keep the pain of loss at bay.

Thanks for reading. Please forward this newsletter to anyone who may be interested in my work, or direct them to the link below.
