

Cindy Pierce

Author, Speaker, Storyteller & Sexuality Educator

"I have dug into some challenging topics with Cindy and even the most emotional conversations include laughter and levity. One of her greatest gifts is her ability to give her undivided attention and full presence in a conversation. Her vulnerability makes me feel safe, less alone, and that I'm on the path to more parenting joy."

- Parent of young kids

Bio:

Cindy Pierce is an author, educational speaker, sexuality educator, comic storyteller, innkeeper, and mom of three young adults. Combining years of research with her storytelling skills, Cindy engages audiences with her message supporting teens to make healthy choices and navigate cultural pressures, online and off. It has become increasingly challenging for young people to feel at ease and socially relevant as they attempt to find balance in their busy lives.

The topics Cindy covers in her presentations include: Social courage, healthy relationships, hookup culture, consent, boundaries, communication, inclusion, social media, online influencers, internet porn, and gender expectations.

Cindy is the author of three books, including Sexploitation: Helping Kids Develop Healthy Sexuality in a Porn-Driven World. She and her husband, Bruce Lingelbach own and run Pierce's Inn in Etna, NH. You can learn more about Cindy's work at: www.cindy-pierce.com
